WEATHER PROBABILITIES. Dec. 26, 1879. For the Middle Atlantic States clear followed by warmer clear or partly cloudy weather, diminishing northwest followed by southerly winds, rising followed by falling barometer.

REBORN CLUB.—The red ribbon men raised yesterday as a triumph band for their cause in this city. Five hundred inches were served at their rooms Christmas eve and not far from twice as many Christmas day and evening. The hall was festooned and hung with numerous pictures and mottoes, and made really beautiful by various devices. Tables were distributed throughout the room. The different departments of service were clearly systematized. Mr. H. W. Badley had general oversight. Mr. J. O. Stephenson was chairman of the committee on receiving supplies. Mr. Geo. Richards had charge of the kitchen forces. Mr. Charles Thompson superintended the waiters. Mr. "Kit" Dutton had charge of the long table. Mr. G. Richards had charge of the provision room, and sent the food as it was needed to the kitchen to be dealt out to the waiters. Mr. Geo. Richards had charge of the pledge book and Mr. J. W. Henderson, the President, looked after things everywhere.

The hall was crowded all day long and till nearly midnight each night. The very men in whose interest the lunch was served visited the rooms in large numbers. Provisions were sent to generous quantities, but so far was the rule that the food had to be sent out for more, and will have quite a bill to pay before the holidays are over. The men, however, felt that it was well spent money. Those whose duty it was to keep a sharp lookout on the street and elsewhere for men who might drink were not disappointed. Three or four places broken, with a few to the black list put, fifty cents had been the pledge and put in the red ribbon.

Some very interesting incidents occurred during the day. Some men were brought in with their hands filled with their pockets and were induced to sign the pledge, after which they threw the money out the window on the street. Others, however, they had visited the rooms, and when they found out the police and the men who were the danger of the room, they were taken to the police station. Another case in which a man was taken to the police station, he did not want to be taken to the police station, but was taken by one of the men to the police station and put in the red ribbon.

Each evening the church men over the Club had been open to receive the overflow from the hall. Most of the time a few men were present, and some of them were very much interested. Among them were some men who were very much interested in the cause, and they were very much interested in the cause. The men who were very much interested in the cause, and they were very much interested in the cause. The men who were very much interested in the cause, and they were very much interested in the cause.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATIONS.—With Christmas came the season of Sunday school celebrations, when the hearts of the little ones are rejoiced with presents of bibles, toys, books, etc.

Mention was made on Wednesday evening of the celebration at Christ and St. Paul's Churches. Both of these churches were handsomely decorated, and the exercises, consisting of singing, addresses, etc., were very much enjoyed. The late hour at which they occurred prevented the making of a more extended report of these exercises.

The exercises of the Second Presbyterian Church were held on Wednesday night. The children, together with their parents and a large number of friends, assembled in the main hall of the church building, where there was singing by the children and addresses by Rev. Mr. Hamilton and Mr. E. F. Wilson, superintendent of the school. After this the presents were distributed to the children in the basement of the church, and they were very much interested in the cause.

The Christmas exercises of the M. E. Sunday school were held in the sanctuary room of the church. Notwithstanding the rain the house was filled. The children had been decorated for the occasion with unusual care. Mrs. Maudie Clark presided at the organ with her well-known skill, and assisted by Mr. E. H. Clark, with his organ, and the children in the singing. Among the many interesting parts of the exercises was the singing of the hymn "The Christmas Story" over the heads of the audience from the further part of the building over the balcony to the place in the arch over the platform, while the room was decorated. The star was four feet in diameter, and when it shone, it decorated letters, the word "Hallelujah!" After various exercises, in which the children attended the birth of Christ were represented, the children marched forward and received their bibles of candies, etc. The church was very much interested in the cause.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Thomas T. Hurdle, of Richmond, but formerly of this city, is in town on a visit to his relatives. His friends will be glad to hear that he is looking well. Mr. Payne, wife of Capt. Payne, 5th U. S. C., joined her husband at Fort Russell, Wyoming, on the 11th inst. The many friends of S. C. Neale, esq., will be pleased to learn that he is well and sound in New York to-day from his exile.

THE WEATHER.—The rainy weather of yesterday was succeeded during the night by a high wind which soon cleared away the clouds and diminished the temperature very rapidly. The gusts and squalls were soon covered with ice and a slight trace of the same formed along the river banks. The weather all day has continued cold and windy, the thermometer at midday standing at thirty-three.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION TO-NIGHT.—The Christmas celebration of the Sunday school connected with the Union Presbyterian Church, will take place at that church to-night at seven and a half o'clock. The church will be handsomely decorated and the exercises, which will be the feature of the celebration, so far as the audience is concerned, will be a very fine, consisting of quaternities, duets, etc.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—It was noticed that a young lady, who received gentlemanly calls yesterday placed on her cap, was of spiritualist type before them. There was plenty of cake, mince, coffee, etc., but no liquor. This is a good example which all might do well to imitate.

GENEROUS GIFT.—Mary Smith on Wednesday evening presented each member of the pious line with a fine Christmas turkey. The gift was a graceful one and was fully appreciated by the recipients.

LADIES' UNION RELIEF.—Notwithstanding the inclement weather of Tuesday, the pound party for the poor, held at the Relief Society, was a most gratifying success. Though not so numerous as attended, (the day being too bad for the children to turn out), the donations from several of our citizens were so large that there was a good supply of most and groceries for about seventy poor women, to whom they were distributed on Christmas morning, early enough to insure a comfortable Christmas dinner. Besides these supplies of food, thirty-five dresses were given as Christmas presents to the regular working women of the Relief Society, and under the name of many more. The ladies desire to return their warm thanks to the kind friends who generously enabled them to light up so many care worn faces, and to send Christmas cheer to so many humble homes. We only wish they could have been sharers with us in the pleasure of the occasion. We also return very special thanks to Mr. W. B. Wadley, for $10 worth of shoes, and to Mr. F. P. Paff for a large box of the same indispensable articles, and one of the greatest needs and heaviest items of expense in the Society. By order of the BOARD L. U. R.

BOULEVARDS.—The residence of Capt. Wm. A. Pugh, on King street, between Henry and Mayotte, was entered early on the morning of Christmas eve by a robber, but he was heard and scared off by some of the family, not, however, until he had secured a large foot of cake.

Yesterday morning a negro youth, commonly known as "Jugie," entered the store of Mr. Jos. Bager, on King street, between Lee and Union, and purchased a common shirt. While the proprietor had his back turned, wrapping up the garment, the negro stole a vest which was lying on the counter, and which belonged to Mr. H. Schloss, a clerk in the store. In the pocket of the vest was a silver watch and chain valued at $10. The police were notified and went in pursuit of the thief who has not yet been captured.

FUN ON 'CHANGE.—"Christmas comes but once a year," and no people enjoy it more than the mercantile community. This morning, full of yesterday's "good cheer" and fun and frolic—in fine humor with themselves, the merchants in general and "the rest of mankind"—the merchants ran a gambol on 'Change, where, of course, their "pent up feelings" had to find vent in some way; so, after the usual hilarious proceedings, they went upon "light receipts" and "moderate demands," and, instigated by the deleterious from Blaggs and the living representation of the lamented Lincoln, it was determined that to the most popular of their number should be given a "slight token" of their respect and esteem in which he is held by his confederates. On this good deed intent, they, "with a full and hearty heart," selected him upon whom the gods have set their seal; whose patronage is suggestive of all reverence and respect, and who, like the Apollo Boreades of the Romans, is held to be the noblest representative of the Republic. Around his head a wreath they threw, and circling about him, they sang, and while he, like some great man, appears.

"In mortal's strict and sanctity of life."

Fun picture drawn as merit's sake, forte virum quem

Charmus, puer, sicut, arce i quibus aduans, the next ones arrives, et potior mulo.

And having, in most fitting terms and modest of speech, for "familiar calices quem non facere discreta," as pointed to know the cause of "this" and "that" nothing, was told in good old Saxon—had it then, he who presides over the municipal, as presided with benediction and with outstretched palms, presented to the delectable of water pairs some coin rate, initially worth some newer pairs of boots; divers pieces of date of '70, '75 and '78, sticks of pipe, now rate with '70, and to request of silver or gold or greenbacks, none, but some of the kind might be suspected or even easily placed desired and thereby (close by) given, for that goodly crowd there were none who would flinch or dare give his note—for less than fifty cents—ad to whom the matter being as things of the past. The presentation being over of the note, the "bored" were abundant and easily accessible, and so ended the presentation, each member as he left the room singing, "Now, long, be my soul with such memories be filled."

POLICE ITEMS.—The following cases have been reported at Police Headquarters, since Wednesday.

John H. Kirk, for being drunk, resisting an officer and outrageous conduct, at the Station House, was fined, and in default of payment, sent to the chain gang for 90 days.

Eddie Meades, for aggravated assault and battery on a woman, was fined $20, and in default, sent to the chain gang, for 90 days.

Samuel Baker, colored, charged with petit larceny, was held for further examination.

Several cases of plain drunk were fined lightly and dismissed.

KNAT BRITH.—Mount Vernon Lodge No. 259 B'nai Brith, has elected the following officers for the ensuing term: President, E. Goldsmith; Vice President, J. Drury; Treasurer, M. B. Bonding Secretary, M. U. Jones; Trustees, M. B. Bonding; Lecturer, S. U. Jones; Isaac Guardian, H. Schlegel; Oude de Gier, S. U. Jones; Trustees, L. Bonding, C. I. Rieberg, S. Bonding, I. Schlegel and J. Kauffman; Representatives to the District Grand Lodge, which meets in Savannah, Ga., January 20, 1880, S. Bonding, I. Schlegel and M. Bonding.

ACCIDENTS.—As a burglar containing Mr. George Newland and a friend was turning the corner of King and Royal streets, yesterday, the horse made too short a turn and Mr. Newland was thrown out receiving severe cuts and bruises about the head and side. His injuries are not serious.

Mrs. Downey, a lady nearly eighty years of age, fell on the sidewalk, on Cameron street, between Fairfax and Royal streets, on Wednesday night and was severely bruised. She was attended to by the neighbors.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Thomas T. Hurdle, of Richmond, but formerly of this city, is in town on a visit to his relatives. His friends will be glad to hear that he is looking well. Mr. Payne, wife of Capt. MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

The Holidays have interfered with wholesale operations, but our retail dealers with one exception concede that not since the war have they had such a brisk trade, and that the sales to the country show a very decided improvement. Money matters have been quiet, and all legitimate demands are readily met by the banks, the condition of which institutions, as shown by their last reports, are very satisfactory. The Baltimore money market is very easy, and after the January payments are made even a better state of affairs may be expected. The quoted rates are 5 1/2 per cent for loans and 5 1/4 for first class mercantile paper. Money in New York is very abundant, and loans are made at 5 1/2 per cent, closing at 5. United States bonds continue firm, with no material change in prices. State securities are quiet. Virginia consols on Wednesday were about steady, though the action of the readjusting element in the Legislature has a most damaging effect, and the results will be very disastrous to a large class of the people of the State, who accepted the compromise offered in the McCulloch bill and as at present advised will be minus any income for some time to come. The 10 40s were weaker, $28.00 selling in lots at 27 1/2 down to 27, closing at 27 1/2. Asked. There was nothing done in consols, but they were quoted at 62 1/2. Consol coupons for January, 1880, sold at 77 1/2, and the 10-40 coupons sold at 78 1/2. Railroad stocks are dull and nominal, and the bonds were not much better. Sales on Wednesday of $150,000 A. & M. 7s at 121; $500,000 O. & A. at 121 for the 40s, 99 1/2 for the 20s, 6s, and 96 1/2 for 2 1/2 per cent.

Corn is also lower, but receipts are fair, and about 1800 bushels were offered and sold at 63 for yellow, 64 for mixed and 65 for white. No Rye or Oats reported, and prices are at quotations. The receipts of country produce were light to-day, and the cold weather keeps prices up. Bacon is dull, in consequence of the fresh meat now selling, but prices remain unchanged.
